We are officially less than a month away from Father's Day! With the biggest day in the country to celebrate the dad in our lives coming up on June 19th, many are left wondering what are the best places to end up! Well fear not, because Manhattan Digest has you covered to enjoy the day at some of the best locations that New York City has to offer!

Take a look at these fab locations to take that special guy to. Hopefully you will all have a great day and one to bring them back to each and every year!

Dad's Dinner Boat Ride

Bateaux New York's Father's Day weekend cruises are the perfect experiences for the sophisticated dad who loves luxury as much as travel. The sightseeing cruise down the Hudson features elegant dining on the glass-enclosed, European-styled vessel and boasts unobstructed views of the Manhattan skyline. Complimentary Bloody Marys and champagne are offered for dads on board and prices start at $72.90 per person.

A Meal Fit for A King

Treat dad to an evening of indulgence at Del Frisco's Grille New York with an eclectic menu of upscale comfort foods including signature Cheesesteak Eggrolls, Prime Cheeseburger, craft beer (dad is sure to love Captain Lawrence's exclusive Grille Pale Ale!) and award-winning, yet approachable wines. Along with a 16 oz. Dry Aged Prime Rib special available for $46, dads can sit back, relax and take off their ties while enjoying a great meal with the family.

Ultra-Premium Pours for the Ultra-Premium Dad

Spoil dad this Father's Day at Del Frisco's Double Eagle Steak House New York where he can enjoy rare pours of some of America's most exclusive bottles of Armagnac served tableside using the same pipette that's used at Remy Martin's distillery. Along with ultra-premium spirits and stunning views of Radio City and Midtown Manhattan, dads can also indulge in hand-cut Prime steaks, fresh seafood, mouthwatering side dishes and award-winning wines.
